

Buy a passport to a shelter

In March this year, Quicket launched the online sale of a Shelter Passport.

This entitles a recipient to a hot meal, a shower, a bed for the night as well as access to social services at any Haven Night Shelter in the Western Cape.

“The passports are sold in batches of five for only R12 each,” says Jamie Hedley, Quicket Co-Founder.

“You can easily buy a stock of them to keep in your car, handbag or pocket, ready to hand out to those who need them.

“While there are many shelters in Cape Town that are open to homeless people at a small cost, at times they can’t afford this charge.

“Quicket therefore partnered with The Haven Night Shelter to create the shelter passport.

“This enables anyone to go online and buy a passport filled with printable, charity-ready reprieve for those in need.

“Each ticket guarantees the grateful recipient a hot meal, a shower, and a bed for the night (provided there is one free).

In addition, they will receive access to the assistance The Haven provides in terms of social services and helping to get people back on their feet.”
